

Viviane O'Keefe

Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Born in Egypt but raised in England, Viviane worked for the British Ministry of Defense out of high school. She had plans to work for NATO in France, but married and moved to Canada instead. After mothering five children, a passion for ceramics became a full-time home business, which turned into a bookkeeping business.

An avid reader and lover of British Period drama, in 2017, Viviane's Facebook friends recommended Kurt Seyit ve Sura on Netflix, and that was all it took--Viviane was hooked on Turkish Drama. Now she heads up the public FB page for Kivanc Tatlitug.
